A young lady full of ingenuity and enterprise has invented a double acting bustle. The ingenious contrivance is so srranged that when the lady desires to sit down it is operated by springs in such a way as to serve as a camp chair. It does away with the old newspaper arrangement all together and promises to be a source of great revenue to the fortunate inventor.

FURTHERING THE CAUSE.

Monday Meeting of Grand Army Day Executive Committee-The Question of Rations Decorations. As several members of the Grand Army executive committee desired to attend the ward caucuses last evening, the regular monthly merting was held at the ball at 4 o'clock p. m., Mayor Goodwin in the chair, and a quorum present. The camp fire committee was instructed to build a speakers' platform on the grounds, 16 by 24 feet, and O. N. Bartholomew was instructed to consult with that committee and employ necessary workmen, giving G. A. R. comrades the preference, at $1 25 per day. Seats to accommodate 5,000 to 6,000 persons are to be built,

Col. J. E. Stewart, from committee on railroads, reported that all companies had John Sheeter, Thomas O'Brien, James P. modate the change of date of the reunion and had added one day to the limit of round trip tickets, which will be good, returning. until the 15th inst.

Capt. D. C. Putnam, from committee on tents, stated that there would be no deficulty in securing all the canvas required, and that about 500 wall tents had been promised. Col. White interviewed Gen. Finley, while the latter was at Kenton, and there was a prospect of the tents belonging to the 3d, 6th and 14 h regiments, O. N. G., would be at disposal of the committee.

The question of "ations" came up and some of the committee were a little fearful restaurant incilities would not be equal to demands upon them. Colonel Stewart recatled an interview at the Chicago passenger agents' meeting which he attended, with a prominent railroad man and an old soldier who has been in the habit of attending these affairs and expects to come here. He said: "I tell you one thing, Comrade Stewart! All I ask is an opportunity to get a good, square. clean meal at the proper hour. I can take care of myself for the rest of it and am ready to pay for what I have." That about expresses the situation. The matter was canvassed thoroughly and the relief corps dining ball rated at 1,300 meals three times each day, the Lutheran church ladies' restaurant at 1,300, and Morse & Titus' at 2,000, a total of 4 600. All these to be warm meals. In addition there will be numerous lauch counters, which, with facilities up town, it was believed would be equal

The committee on decorations have decided, among other displays on the streets, to put up five ornamental arches, with mottoes and designs, to be located as follows: One at intersection of Market and Mulberry streets, one at intersection of High and Limestone (Mitchell Post ball), one across Main at Mad River Bank, one across Main at St. John sewing muchine factory and one across Yellow Springs street at St. Paul M. E. church. The mais entrance to the sair grounds will also be handsomely and appropriately decked in flags, festoons and mottee. No name for the encampment has yet been selected, but there is an almost unanimous sentiment here in favor of "Camp U. S. Grant "

The committee adjourned until next Mosday evening or to meet at call of the chairman. The Cincinnati Enquirer, Sunday, had the following:

G. H. Thomas Post, No. 13, will attend the Grand Army reunion in a body, headed by the First remiment band of thirty pieces, and they extend a cordial invitation to all and they extend a cordial invitation to all their sister posts of Hamilton county and their neighbors across the river to be their guests. The lare for the round trip is $1.00, The prospects now are that this will be the largest gathering of old soldiers since the war. Let every old soldier saily to the call and fall in. The citizens of Springfield are war. Let every closs ander rang to the call and fall in. The citizens of Springfield are using every effort to make all who attend the reunion feel at home and enjoy themselves. All those who intend going will report at the G. A. R. memorial hall, 115 west Sixth street, and mach to the Pan Handle denot on West. and march to the Pan Handle depot, on Wedneeday morning, August 12th, to start at 7 pm. sharp, led by the First regiment band.

FULL REPORT OF THE PRECINCT CAUCUSES LAST NIGHT.

Large Turnout at All Pieces-Little Wire Putting - Each Candidate Gets & Pair Show-Plenty of Ricking on the Lottery Scheme Resolutions of Remonatrance in the First Ward Delegates and Alternates in Today's Convention Returns From the Baral Presucces-Lively Scenes After the Ward Meetings Were Over Last Night.

The primaries last night were much better attended than republican ward caucuses generally are. The great number of candidates made the fight extremely interesting, and as the friends of each were out in force, the meetings were crowded. The friends of the candidates worked and "hustled" of course, but there was a noticeable lack of cut and dried jobs, each candidate getting a fair show-Following is a full report of the primaries held within the city:

FIRST WARD.

The republicans of the First ward met at the Sheriff's office, county court house. The meeting was called to order by committeenian A. J. Baker. J. S. Miles was elected chairman and A. S. Rodgers secretary. Dave Wilburn was elected to get off the "blind man" act. The meeting then proceeded to elect the committee of seven for the choosing of the delegates. The result was as follows: W. T. Brasfield, J. W. Heaton, M. O Neill, J. S. Miles, J. T. Moody, James Foley, James Clayton. The caucus at this point adopted the following resolution:

Resolved. That the republicans of the First ward in caucus assembled, hereby protest against the plan adopted by the republican central committee for relecting delegates to the republican county convection to be held in this city August 4, 1885, as being a reflection upon the honesty and integrity of H. Myers, J. W. Hagerman, W. H. Dickson,

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to decline in tuture to be governed by any cell H. Arbogast, Samuel Buylest, D. E. Barnum, for selection of delegates that deprives each S. A. Merrow, James Russell, E. C. Middleelector from voting directly for the person or persons whom he wants to represent him in future conventions as delegate and alter-

The following were then elected delegates: Andrew Jackson, J. S. Miles, O. H. Nuby, A. J. Baker, John Love, Lewis Yeazell, W. T. Brasfield, Morris Tehan, Chas. Waskey and John Wilburn. The alternates elected were: Jas. Foley, Jas. Clayton, Geo. Poling. phreys and James Heaton.

The enthusiastle republicans of the Second ward turned out in goodly numbers to attend their caucus last night which was held at the Western engine boure-The meeting was colled to prder about 8 o'clock by central committeeman P. M. Carimell. Dr. Lewis was chosen chairman and Charles Shewalter secretary. A. K. Hahn was elected to undergo the blindfolding procommitteeman. The caucus then adjourned on motion of P. M. Cartmell. THIRD WARD, PRECISCY A. Republicans of this precinct met in large numbers at the Central Enhouse. They were called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by Central Committeeman Dr. Welsh, who stated briefly the meeting. O. B. Trout was made chairman, L. F. Young secretary, and E. T. Reidenour was elected to do the blindfold business. When the chairman announced that the election of members for the nominating committer of seven was pext in order, Mr. Amus Whitely rose and stated his objections to the plan of the central committee in a speech of some length, occupying fully half the time of the meeting in opposing this plan. His mction to amend the rule was voted down, and the ballotting for the committee went on, recalting in the election of J. K. Mower, F. M. Welsh, C. A. Welsh, O. O. Rouse, R. Q. King, Robert Johnson and Ed. Ridenour. The hat full of names was soon brought in, and the lottery resulted as tollows: Delegates J. E. Lantz, C. H. Keys, J. K. Mower, O. O. W. A. McCrary was ejected as central comjourned.

The republicans of Precinct B., Fifth ward, net in large numbers at the wigwam, near the street car stables, on West Main street, Central Committeeman, D. W. Stroud, called them to order and briefly stated the object of the meeting, and the method of election laid down by the Central committee. J. J. Snyder was then elected chairman, and D. W. Stroud secretary. The balloting for the nominat ing committee of seven resulted in the election of A. S. Way, B. F. Butler, D. W. Stroud, Pullip Fish, William Pipes, G. W. Reynolds, and William Smith. They retired and soon returned with ten names in the hat which were drawn in the following order: Delegates -D. W. Strond, J. J. Sayder, J. James, William W. Pipes. Alternates-Jeff. Markwood, A. B. Morris, Philip Fish, A. S. Way, and G. W. Reynolds. Then followed quite a warm little fight for central committeeman, which pie was carried off by Way, the vote standing as follows: A. S. Way, 16; D. W. Stroud, 10; A. B. Morris, 3. Adjourned.

SIXTH WARD-PRECINCY A. About thirty republicans of Precinct A, Sixth ward, met at the mayor's court room last evening, and were called to order shortly Rob. C. Rodgers, Geo. Driscol, I. H. Kelley, M. Rockel, who explained the purpose of the selected to draw the ballots from the box, as meeting, and said that the first business in order was the selection of a chairman C C made secretary on motion of D. C. Putnam. enough to amount to anything. After another pointer from Rockel, the chairman anto draw the ballots from the hat. On mofor the blind-fold act. A few of the candidates were scattered about-W. M. Rocket, for prosecuting attorney, sitting nervously by the chairman; Drs. Russell and Hulick, for coroner, smiling blandly, and J. Guilford White floating in for a moment just as the balloting begun. Just then John T. Norris came booming in and wanted to know what it all meant. A freezing silence followed and no arrest were made. The balloting for members of the acminating committee then began. The votes were counted by the teller and secretary showing Dr. Bryant to be elected by 8 votes, Armin Fassler by 4 votes and D. C. Putnam by votes. The following names received two votes each: A. H. Gillett, O. N. Bartholomew, D. H. Ackerson, Dr. Russell, J. C. Holloway and Cornelius Baker. Suggestions were made for a new ballot, but W. M Rockel read the secti n of the "plan" re ferring to tie votes. On his motion then the names of these six wate put in a hat and Chase Stewart turned his back, shut his eyes and drew out the names of D. H. Ackerson. Dr. Russell, A. H. G listt, and Cornelius Ba ker. At the request of the chairman the committee then retired to the ante-room to select 28 names for delegates and alternates. While they were out Christic Holloway did a little kicking about Dr. Russell being on the committee, but did not press his objection. Each of the committee selected four names to go in the hat. When they returned, Chase Stewart was blindfolded by John Norris and Armin Faseler held the hat ready. Just then J. Guilford White, who had again come in, requested that the rule be read, adopted by the central committee. It was read by A H. Gillett and on motion of Judge Goode, the hat was considered a box. The draw then returned with the following result: Deleproceeded with the following result: Delegates-M. M. Hedges, Harry McCuddy, A. H. Gillett, O. N. Bartholomew, D. P. Jeffries, H. H. Mcorr, C. C. Fried, A. C. Cowan, Wm. B-Huffman, Wm. Conklin, D. H. Ackerson, W.

> The chairman then announced that a cenral committeeman was to be elected for the following year. J.C. Holloway was nomi-tated by O. N. Bartholomew and W. M. Rockel by J. Guilford White. The ballot gave Rockel fitteen votes and Holloway eight, thus electing the former. Adjourned.

Last night as soon as the caucuses were over the candidates repaired to their several offices where runners brought in returns from the different precincts, and the telephone gave scattering bits of information as to the way the wind was flowing in the rural precincts. Walter Weaver's office was crowded with his friends eagerly awaiting returns and figuring on the results. Weaver, Rawlins and Dr. Russell all received their returns here, and the scene was a lively one until midnight. It looked very much as though Weaver and Rawlins had a walkover, but the energetic George Rawlins was just as nervous as though the race were still neck and neck Down in Dr. Russell's office an amanuensis was busy until long after mid-night sending out to each delegate a copy of a personal let-Campbell, Frank McClure, Oscar T. Martin, ter which the enterprising candidate for coroner had prepared, asking each man for his support. At mid-night George Rawlins received a telegram from South Charleston, mying that Seymour Harold's friends had captured tour of the committee and shut out the other three from a voice in the selection of delegates. It also stated that Rawlin's friends were coming up to fight the case in the convention.

Death of a Ploneer Lady. Of the mother of Mr. Joe Scheebly, an attache of the GLOBE-REPUBLIC, of whose illness mention was made last werk, the Dayton Journal, of Monday, says:

Mrs. Eliza Schuebly died at her residence on Brown street Friday evening. She has lived in Dayton about forty ye rs. She was born in Hagerstown, Md., in Janua y 1800. She was married to John Schuebly 1819. In 1827 they moved to Ohio, settling in Xenia, and in 1846 they moved to Dayton where she has since lived. Her husband died in 1852. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. and served under Captain Quantrell. Mrs. Schnebly was the mother of nine children, seven of whom are still living. She bas long been an invelid suffering great bodily affliction, but her mental forces remained un-impaired to the last.
